DIGITAL ACCESS TO DISPERSED RECORDS: A LOOK AT NATIVE AMERICAN BOARDING SCHOOL RECORDS

This year as part of Indigenous Peoples' Day, join the National Native American Boarding School (NABS) Healing Coalition at 2pm Central Time for the webinar "Digital Access to Dispersed Records: A Look at Native American Boarding School Records," sponsored by the SAA Native American Archivists and Human Rights Archives Sections!

This live webcast will discuss NABS's initiative to identify and collect nationally dispersed Native American boarding school records discovered in various institutions including libraries, state/federal archives, universities, and colleges, and how to implement digital access to these vital records.

Guest Presenters

Christine Diindiisi McCleave, enrolled citizen of Turtle Mountain Ojibwe Nation & Executive Director of the National Native American Boarding School Healing Coalition

Dr. Rose Miron, Director of the D'Arcy McNickle Center for American Indian and Indigenous Studies at the Newberry Library in Chicago
